ABOUT

Game ON is all about exploring simple ways how to work together with others and create various games outside in nature.

ABOUT

The idea of the project is to create a playful environment in which you will be encouraged to explore your own capabilities, to put your values into practice and be inspired by yourself and others.

In 12 days you will create, play and experiment within an intercultural group of 50 youngsters from 10 different countries.

How do we do it:

Since we believe that the best way of learning is through experiences, we are planning to have a project with dynamic and full days where you will have the chance to create and guide your own learning process.

Experiencing - you will be participating in the games & workshops organised by the Group Leaders

Creating - in small international groups you will be organising games and activities for each other

Exploring - this will be the time to put all your improved skills in practice while going on a hiking, biking and rafting adventure in the Netherlands

FACILITATORS

Emma Mulders

Emma (NL) is facilitator, communicator and atmosphere creator, who is always seeking for ways to empower people to become aware of their own strengths, energy and possibilities. She is using her intuition, care and positive energy to connect with her participants and make them feel welcomed, included and engaged. When she is not engaging people to take the unknown road together with her, she will most probably be adventure travelling around the world and sharing meals and dances with people she has met along the way.

Krisztina Erdélyi
Krisztina (RO) is a facilitator and youth worker in Olde Vechte Foundation where for the past three years she has been supporting youngsters and young adults in their development. Out of her playfulness, she likes to combine nature and games in order to create learning opportunities. When she is not designing projects, you will most probably find her dancing to uplifting songs or drinking coffee and tea in cozy places.

Anna Marija Bērziņa

Anna (LV) is a freelance project manager and facilitator who is passionate about designing educational programmes for young people. Her energetic attitude, playful spirit and practical approach to learning makes her projects dynamic, fun and insightful. When she is not guiding people or making sure that everything runs smoothly and efficiently, she is either enjoying long walks with her dog or going kayaking.

ABOUT OLDE VECHTE

ABOUT OLDE VECHE FOUNDATION

Olde Vechte is a non-profit organization based in Ommen, the Netherlands. It has been functioning as a training center for non-formal education, personal development, coaching, social and cultural work. Its mission is to create a learning environment out of love, care and cooperation for everyone, especially for people whose needs cannot be met by the methods of formal education. Out of this approach, the foundation is focused on the method of learning by experience.

ABOUT THE ACCOMMODATION

The project will take place in and around the main accommodation, in the small city of Ommen, surrounded by nature. The house will serve as a home and working space during these days, which means that we will take care of it and refresh it by ourselves. Catering will be provided by the foundation.
